

AND MY HEART SOARS~O SIEM !

This fall, The Kingston Fair will introduce a new, special event featuring Chief Don Maracle of Tyendinaga, David R. Maracle who is an International Multi-Instrumentalist, a well-known author in the person of Jean Rae Baxter, and others. It is a three day look at the cultures and practices of the peoples who through time walked the land forming the Memorial Centre Grounds. It will explore via presentation, song, dance, story, and display the ways of the original inhabitants ~ the Indigenous Peoples ~ followed by the French and the United Empire Loyalists with a nod to tales of modern day market goers.

The Kingston Fall Fair is honoured by local communities and organizations such as the MOHAWKS of THE BAY OF QUINTE, the UNITED EMPIRE LOYALISTS, the HISTORICAL SOCIETY, the FRONTENAC HERITAGE FOUNDATION, the GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, and the MEMORIAL CENTRE MARKET all of which have graciously prepared to participate in this 'happening'. The Fall Fair is grateful to Chief Don Maracle, to David and Kimmy Maracle, José Roosenmaallen, Jean Rae Baxter (Nominee for the 2022 GG's History Award for Popular Media: The Pierre Berton Award), Mary Alice Downie, Anne Reddish, Lynn Bell, Dr. Tabitha Renaud, Shirley Baily, Peter Gower, the City's HERITAGE CENTRE and many others for their very real contributions of time, talent, suggestions and support for this venture.

Presentations in the Entertainment Tent

Friday Sept. 16th 9:15 am to 3:30 pm

Saturday Sept. 17th 9:40 am to 1 pm

Sunday Sept. 18th 9:40 am to 2:30 pm.

Celebrating our 190th Kingston Fall Fair